

Consent to electronic publication in the journal
„Anwendungen und Konzepte der Wirtschaftsinformatik“

By signing the article, the authors agree to the following terms and conditions for electronic publication:

1. Online provisioning

The author authorizes the editors of the online journal to publish the submitted article in this journal. In order to ensure that the article can be cited, subsequent changes to published articles are excluded. Within the framework of the public provision, readers of the journal are entitled to view, download, save or print a small number of the article for their own private or other personal use (§ 53 UrhG1).

2. Archiving and transformation

In order to ensure the longest possible online availability, the author authorises the editors to store the article in a long-term archive and, if necessary, to convert it into other electronic and physical formats.

3. Third-party rights

The author declares that the publication of the document and its components does not infringe the rights of third parties. The author exempts the journal and its publishers from any claims by third parties.

4. License and DOI

The article is published under the Creative Commons License 4.0 BY (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/legalcode>). The Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts stores it in the repository of the Zenodo platform (<https://zenodo.org/>) in CERN's computer center and generates a DOI for this license model.

5. Payment

Since the editors of the above-mentioned journal do not pursue any economic interests, the author receives no payment for his contribution.
